

Huylers

JUST IN at

...Soule's

Try his Licorice Tablets,
5c. a package, for Coughs and Colds.

Headquarters for

Brushes of all kinds

HANDINE

For Chapped Hands and Face, Use

WINSTEAD'S HANDINE

There is nothing to equal it. Sold by all first-class druggists.

Gold Fish

We have just received a new shipment of gold fish in all sizes, from 15c to 75c apiece. We have only a few fine Japanese specials left. Call and see them or telephone 237.

J. D. BACON & CO.

Druggists... Gold Fish Agents

GALES ON THE ATLANTIC.

Jacoming Steamers Report Very Rough Passages.

New York, Feb. 4.—The White Star line steamer Teutonic, Captain Cameron, arrived yesterday for Liverpool and Queenstown, after a very stormy voyage. For three days after leaving Queenstown the Teutonic experienced a succession of fresh southeasterly gales with heavy cross seas; on January 31st the gale increased until it blew with cyclonic force. After nearly twenty hours the storm subsided into a fresh southeast gale, then shifting to a westerly gale and lasting up to the time of the steamer's arrival at Sandy Hook.

The Atlas line steamer Alagoa and the fruit steamer Douglas were the only arrivals from West India ports this morning. Both ships experienced very heavy weather after passing Cape Hatteras. The decks, rails and sides were covered with ice.

MARDI GRAS AT NEW ORLEANS.

FEBRUARY 22, 1893.

For the above occasion the Illinois Central Railroad company will sell tickets, February 16 to 21 inclusive, at one fare for the round trip, good returning until March 5. Two fast through trains, carrying Pullman palace sleeping cars.

For tickets and information apply to
J. T. DONOVAN,
Commercial Agent,
Paducah, Ky.

Croup, the great enemy of childhood, succumbs at once to the southing influence of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Bronchial affections lose their danger when this great remedy is at hand. No home should be without it.

Signs of...

The Season

Cold, Rain, and Snow, Umbrellas, Coughs and Colds, and Overshoes.

These are expected. They suggest discomfort, and fear of colds that do not get cured. But there is another, more hopeful sign in our

COMPOUND COUGH SYRUP

It is the thing to begin doctoring a cold with. It stimulates the depressed nerves and equalizes the congested circulation.
It is something that everybody should have in the house, to treat a cold at the beginning. Price 25c. large bottle.

M'PHERSON'S DRUG STORE
FOURTH AND BROADWAY

LINDSAY'S ANSWER.

Defends His Position on the Currency Question. But Won't Resign the Senatorship.

He Represents the State of Kentucky, Not the Small Ring
Now in Control of the Legislature.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Senator
Wm. Lindsay of Kentucky defended his position on the currency question today in an able speech in the Senate. The speech was directly an answer to the resolution adopted by the Kentucky Legislature calling for his resignation. The speech was delivered at noon and before an immense crowd as it was well known that his answer would be given today.

The Senator said that his position on the currency question had been consistent. That he had always been opposed to absolute free coinage of silver. That as Senator he represented the whole state of Kentucky and not a small ring of politicians which changed creeds with every moon. The Legislature of Kentucky had no right to ask for his resignation and he would not resign.

SELFISH CANADA.

Trying to Keep the Klondike for Her Own Gold Hunters.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 3.—At a public meeting held here last night, resolutions were passed urging that Klondike miners' license be granted only to British subjects or citizens of countries that afford similar privileges to British subjects within their own territory. That so long as Canadian lumber going into the United States is taxed, an equal tax should be placed on American lumber coming into Canada; that there is no need of the United States troops to accompany the relief expedition to the Yukon; that the disputed territory should be administered jointly;
that the American vessels be prohibited from carrying goods from one Canadian port to another in accordance with the coasting laws.

Quartermaster General to Retire.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—The Quartermaster General of the army,
Geo. H. Weeks, will retire from active service tomorrow, and will be succeeded by Col. Marshall L. Ludington, the senior officer of the Quartermaster's Department. The new Quartermaster General, Col. Ludington, was appointed to the army from Pennsylvania, and is not a West Point graduate, having entered the regular establishment after gallant service in the volunteers during the war.

Below Zero In Bell.

Pineville, Feb. 4.—Yesterday was the coldest of the winter, the temperature being 5 degrees below zero. The ground is covered with snow and for the first time this season the Cumberland river is frozen over.

Company Formed at Galesburg.
Galesburg, Ill., Feb. 4.—Twenty Galesburg men have formed a company and are making preparations to start for Alaska. They have raised $15,000 for expenses. Their ship builder is already on the way to Seattle and construct a boat 80x20 feet. Others of the party will follow in two weeks. Fred R. Allen is president of the company. Charles Rodine is secretary, and Ed Anderson is treasurer.

QUIRINAL AND VATICAN.

Information That Papal Claims to Temporal Power May Be Abandoned.

Exclusive cablegram to the Globe-Democrat.
Rome, Feb. 2.—Far from giving any manifestation of the recent sensational article in the Jesuit Civita Cattolica review concerning the preferences of the Catholic church for an Italian republic in lieu of the Italian monarchy, the Pope has, on the contrary, taken an early means of indicating that the article in question does not represent either his views or his wishes. No one stands higher in his confidence than Cardinal Capella-tro, archbishop of Capua, the most perfect community of ideas exists in political as well as ecclesiastical matters. The cardinal has just delivered a very important address to the clergy, in the course of which he insisted on the "ardent desire" of the Pontiff of himself for "the termination of the difficulties existing between the Italian Government and the papacy." He declared that this was "the principal and most desirable aim to be kept in view," and urged his clergy to pray to the Almighty to "imbu[e] the people and the governing classes with sentiments of affection and regard for him who holds in his hands the keys of St. Peter."
"In that event," he added,
"the Pope will, even at the cost of great sacrifices, give the kiss of peace, and that day will be the grandest of Christian history." Everybody here is now asking what the sacrifices can be to which the cardinal refers as liable to be made by the Pope, and of consensus of opinion is to the effect that these sacrifices will consist of the abandonment of the claims of the papacy to temporal power, which, as every one knows, is the principal point of issue between church and state in Italy.

Heavy Damages Asked for Eject- ment.

Owensboro, Ky., Feb. 4.—J. B.
Tompkins has filed suit against S. P.
Knutt for $25,000 damages. This is an echo of the Bon Harbor farm fight between Tompkins, the overseer, and Knutt, the owner. Mrs. Knutt is also made a party in the suit. The allegations are that Knutt, by force and arms, went into Tompkins' house and violently ejected him, his family and possessions. The plaintiff alleges that when he attempted to prevent the forcible seizure and ejection he was assaulted and bound with ropes and cords to the ground, and kept in that condition for hours.

The cases of all parties concerned in the Bon Harbor row of last week came up today, but were postponed until February 14.

New Albany Church Burned.

New Albany, Ind., Feb. 4.—The First Presbyterian church, the largest in the city, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Loss $50,000; insurance, $20,000. The fire caused by a defective flue. The First National bank building adjoining was damaged $2500, which is covered by insurance. The church was built in 1852.

UNEXPECTED ELOPEMENT.

Mr. Tom Lyle and Miss Ozema
Tully Run Away, but Agree To Return and Be Married.

Returned at 1:35 and Were Married at 1:30 O'clock. This Morning, Rev. Johnston Officiating.

Mr. Thomas B. Lyle, eldest son of the late Mr. T. B. Lyle, and Miss Ozema Tully, youngest daughter of County Judge Tully, were united in marriage at 1:30 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents on West Jefferson street, Rev.
H. B. Johnston, of the Broadway M.
E. church, officiating.

The couple left yesterday on the 1:15 o'clock train for Paducah junction, intending to proceed by carriage to Union City, Tenn. They were intercepted at Fulton, however, by the bride's father, who had telephoned to have them stopped. It was agreed to permit them to marry here if they would return, and they consented.
Mr. Wynne Tully, brother of the young lady, went down to Fulton on the 3:30 train and accompanied them home, arriving at 1:15 this morning. The objection to the match was the youthfulness of the couple.

The groom is a popular and very well known young man and has just begun a business career in the farming implement trade. The bride is an accomplished and charming young lady, and both have many friends to extend congratulations.

TRAIN WAS TELESCOPE.

Several Persons Injured in a Massachusetts Wreck.

Somerville, Mass., Feb. 4.—A local passenger train from Stoneham on the southern division of the Boston & Maine railroad, was struck in the rear and telescoped at the Winter Hill Station this morning by a train from Concord, and several persons were injured, some seriously. The engineer of the Concord train was unable to see the train ahead of him on account of the steam from his locomotive.

CUBAN INSURGENTS ACTIVE.

Dynamited and Destroyed a Pontoon Railroad Line.

Havana, Feb. 3.—The insurgents have dynamited and destroyed a pontoon railroad line near San Felipe, Province of Havana.

MARKETS.

Reported by the Lacey Grain Co.
Chicago, Feb. 3.—The markets
today ranged as follows:
May wheat opened at 95, touched 95 1/2, and closed at 95 1/2.
May corn—Opened 29 1/2, highest 29 3/4, closing at 29 3/4.
May oats—Opened 24 1/2, highest 24 3/4, closing 24 3/4.
May pork—Opened 10.15, highest 10.27, closing 10.27.
May lard—Opened 4.90, highest
4.97, closing 4.95.
May ribs—Opened 5.00, highest
5.07, closing 5.07.
May cotton—Opened 5.83, highest 5.83, closed 5.82.

LA BELLE PARK LAKE.

It Is Well Frozen and Many Skaters are Out.

LaBelle park is now a favorite resort for skaters. The lake is well frozen, and affords about the best skating hereabout. Large crowds may be found upon it day and night, and especially after school hours.
The park manager is making a good thing out of old Boreas' vagary and those who glide about on the placid bosom of the lake must just produce the sum of one dime, a tenth of a dollar.

AROUND THE CITY HALL.

Wickliffe People Want a Telephone System.—Have Written Mayor Lang About the Plan.

A Policeman Who Wanted a Fire On His Beat.—Other City Notes of Interest.

Mayor Lang today received a letter from Mr. Wm. Henderson, secretary of the Wickliffe Telephone company, stating that the people of Wickliffe and Ballard county in general, are very anxious to have telephone connections with Paducah, and asked if the Bell Telephone company has an exclusive franchise here.

Mayor Lang is investigating the matter, and gives it as his opinion that the company has not an exclusive franchise. The benefits that would accrue to both counties would be great. It is hoped negotiations will be successful.

Mayor Lang tells a good joke on Officer J. R. McClane, who has the "Fisherville" beat. Yesterday afternoon the officer showed up at the Mayor's office, and hung around until somebody arrived. He then sat around for an hour or two inside the office. The Mayor came to the conclusion the officer had some great piece of detective work to report.
He finally caught the Mayor alone.
"I went to see about some coal for me and my partner," he finally announced. "Can't you send us a load up on our beat to keep warm by?"

"Coal? Why you ain't supposed to stop long enough to get warm."

"We'll have to, though. I walked 100 miles last night trying to keep warm."

"That's what you're paid for," laughingly rejoined the mayor. "I'll do you good and save you a coal bill. It would never do to spend the city's money for a load of coal to dump on your beat. It might establish a dangerous precedent, and I might be impeached for misappropriation of the city's funds."

The officer had to walk again last night to keep warm.

Mayor Lang today notified Chief Wood, of the fire department, that stationmen must pass a physical examination, as required by ordinance, and their certificates, signed by the city physician, all be filed by the mayor. Thus far none of the firemen have been examined.

There may be a called council meeting tonight, and there may not be one. At press time it had not been decided whether one would be held or not.

STATE LEGISLATION.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 4.—The most important doings of the legislature yesterday were as follows:

IN THE HOUSE.

The committees were first called.
Mr. North withdrew the bill changing Pineville from a fourth to a fifth class town; Mr. Lauffer withdrew his bill on printing; Mr. Petty's bill authorizing Isaacson to issue bonds for purchasing turnpikes, the bill changing the time for holding courts in Bell county, which passed the Senate. Mr. Hickman's reported bill extending the power and time of holding quarterly courts, and Mr.
Humphrey's bill to empower county judges to post public roasts were all advanced.

The act to reimburse circuit clerks for money collected under the act allowing $5 for service in felony cases, held as unconstitutional, was killed.
Mr. Travers' bill to repeal an act relating to circuit judges in counties of between 10,000 and 50,000 was advanced.

The act amending the code on taking depositions, was killed; the act regulating the taking of depositions in short hand, was postponed.

Senator Bronston presented his prison commission bill to the House and was cheered.

The Travers bill, raising the age of consent from sixteen to eighteen, was reported favorably. It came up for passage and precipitated a hot fight. Mr. Hobbs moved to indefinitely postpone the matter. This was voted down. Mr. Hobbs wanted to introduce a bill to protect young boys, Messrs. Saunders, Humphreys, Travers and others spoke warmly for the bill. All kinds of amendments were then offered.

Mr. Hobbs sent up a bill presented by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. It was ruled out by order, and the age of consent bill, as finally passed by 60 to 7, provides that whoever over sixteen years of age shall carnally know a female under fourteen shall be confined from one to five years. The present law on the age of consent is twelve years.

Mr. Lackey's bill establishing a medical school in connection with A.
& M. college; the act for the protection of laborers; Mr. Charlton's bill to establish a labor bureau in connection with the office of commissioner of agriculture; Mr. Haswell's amendment to the election law on prohibition, were reported favorably and advanced.

The House passed the act granting appeal to the court of appeals in habeas corpus cases.

The House passed the act requiring that the law making a legal fence for the farmer shall apply to railroad companies.

The House defeated the bill giving judges the right to select jurors from bystanders by 37 to 42, and adjourning.

IN THE SENATE.

Senator Goebel introduced a bill to prevent any person from practicing medicine or treating any sick person by any method without complying with act of April 10, 1893.
It is aimed at osteopath system of curing diseases. He also presented a bill amending the corporation law so that stockholders in newspaper companies shall be liable for the amount of unpaid stock subscribed to said companies.

Senator Goebel's act amends Section 10, Article 1, of private corporation act of April, 1893, by inserting the following words: "Or for the purpose of printing and publishing newspapers or other literary productions or works of art." Senator Goebel says the act means nothing more than to make parties subscribing stock to newspapers liable for the full amount of stock.

Senator Ferguson introduced an act to regulate the price of licenses for circuses by the size of the circus.

Senator Goebel's Fellow Servant
Bill was postponed until next Wednesday at 11 o'clock, when it will be taken up.

Senator Crenshaw's Anti-Book Trust Bill then came up, and Senator Bronston made the statement that this trust now furnished books to 116 counties in the state. He made a comparative statement as to relative cost of similar books in other states, and showed that prices charged in Kentucky are two or three times as great as charged in some other state.
Action was postponed and the bill goes over.

Senator Ferguson sent up and read a letter from Mr. Bryan. "I am deeply indebted to the members of the legislature for the high commitment which they have paid me by their invitation, and while I am not able to make any promise at this time, I shall be pleased to visit Frankfort if I find it possible to do so during the season."

Senator Hays' bill providing for working short term convicts on public roads was passed by 16 to 11.

Senator Hays' bill providing for police pension association for Louisville passed by 18 to 6.

SHIPPING SPIRITS TO GERMANY.

American Distilling Company's First Consignment on a 2000-Barrel Order.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 4.—The shortage of the potato crop in Germany has increased the business of the American distilling companies in foreign lands. Five hundred barrels of alcohol have been taken out of bond for export purposes by the American Spirits Manufacturing Company, and will be shipped direct to Hamburg, Germany. It is the first consignment on an order for 2000 barrels placed by the American Distributing company. There will be four shipments of 500 barrels per week. The failure of the potato crop in Germany is assigned as the cause for this unusual shipment to that country. Germany is the leading distilling center of Europe, and the shortage of the crop of potatoes, from which the German product is made, has caused the German dealers to look to America for spirits. For the past six or eight years the German whiskey has supplanted American goods all over the world. Last year the potato crop was comparatively small, and many of the European distilleries were hadly handicapped, and several had to close down. A few days ago the American Spirits Manufacturing company shipped a large order of goods to Yokohama, Japan, to be used in the manufacture of smokeless gunpowder. The Globe distillery at Pe-ria shipped an order of 350 barrels to Japan for the same purpose.

MATINEE TOMORROW.

Fields & Hanson's Big White Minstrels.

Fields & Hanson's all-white minstrels will give a ladies' and children's matinee at Morton's opera-house tomorrow at 2 o'clock. Admission: Adults, 50 cents; children, 25 cents.

NEW SUNDAY PAPER.

Is the Latest Scheme Talked Of For Paducah.

It is reported that a Sunday paper is soon to be started in Paducah by several men who are to have it printed in a local job office. As yet nothing definite has been given out in regard to it.

We can fill your wants for ANYTHING

in the Drug line.

DU BOIS & CO.

A new line of Trusses and Crutches

Just in.

Upholstery... AND AWNINGS

We are now prepared to do anything in the line of Upholstering Repairing of Furniture and Awnings. We manufacture and make over all kinds of Mattresses; cotton top, all cotton, moss, hair and box mattresses. Odd sizes in mattresses made to order on short notice.
Telephone 396, and we will call and make estimates on your work.

Gardner Brothers & Company

Telephone No. 396.

203 205 South Third street.

'Tis an Old Saying, but Still 'Tis True A Penny Saved is a Penny Made.

It has, and always will be, our aim to save our customers every cent we possibly can by selling a good quality of boot and shoe at a small margin. Our line of men's shoes can't be surpassed in the city.

See our Vici line—Hard to beat
See our Green line—They are daisies
See our Ox Blood line—Pretty as a peach
See our Russia line—It feels good
See our Kangaroo Calf—Soft and nice
See our Calf line—You know what 'tis See our Box Calf line—Right in the ring

In medium priced goods we hold our own in Ladies' and Gentlemen's shoes. Customers we sold goods to twenty years ago still hang on to us. We hold them by selling good goods and sticking up to what we say. Come in to see us.

GEO. ROCK & SON,

321 BROADWAY.

CUT PRICES PREVAIL AT THE FAMOUS.

$1.50, $1.00 and 75 cent

SHIRTS

Monarchs, Manhattans, Anchors, Cosmopolitans, etc.

Including all the leading brands White and Colored.

..Cut to 49c. Cash

A great closing out of odd lots.

Suspenders...

Regular 25 cent quality.

FANCY WEBS,
FANCY BUCKLES,
CORD ENDS.

We bought a large lot at a price which was a great sacrifice on the maker's part.

Our price 10c. a pair

See the Window Display. It Will Pay You.
B. WEILLE & SON,

409-411 Broadway.

409-411 Broadway.

COHEN

The Leading Pawnbroker

I have opened a Pawn-broker and Loan Office, and will loan money on good collateral at reasonable rates and on liberal terms.

Early Arrivals in Wash Dress Goods

YOU will want these dainty gingham and natty novelties by and by, and you will want them in a hurry. You would better take them now, while they are fresh, pretty and cheap. Everything favors your buying early!

The Newest Fabrics...

Toile du Nord Gingham—occupy the leading positions among materials especially adapted to children's wear, as well as the latest designs for ladies' waists. These goods are unquestionably the best fabric in the market at the price... 10 cents a yard

Standard Madras Cloths—One of the best and most popular new fabrics of the season. Our assortment comprises a variety of dainty woven effects in checks, plaids and stripes, warranted absolutely fast colors... Price 12 1/2 cents

Dainty New Challises—A beautiful line of all-wool filling challises with satin stripes, regular 25c value, we offer at 10 cents a yard

Gramplan Cloths—A delightful soft, cool fabric of chevron character, designed for shirt waists, blouses and children's dresses. All the newest colorings... 18 cents a yard

Silk-Figured Dalmattas—A woven fabric as novel and unique as the name it bears; a rare combination of silk and cotton in a great variety of fancy weaves, in which the cross bars and figures of silk are strikingly prominent. For this rich and exclusive novelty we ask the modest price of... 25 cents a yard

Mousseline de Soie—The great imported novelty for 1908. They comprise the newest shades in this beautiful silken fabric that is eminently suitable in weight and coloring for summer and evening wear. Our price only... 50 cents a yard

THE WHITE GOODS SALE CONTINUES

Domestics—Masonville, Lonsdale and Fruit of the Loom domestics... 6 1/2 cents a yard

Hamburg Embroideries—We are offering an immense assortment of one, two and three-inch wide extra quality Hamburg embroideries at... 5 and 10 cents a yard

Fine Laces and Edgings—A perfect line of beautiful patterns in fine Torchon, German and Valenciennes laces, insertions, nainsook and Swiss embroideries, cheap

SPECIAL MULLIN UNDERWEAR PRICES

Are moving our big stock right along. It will pay you to attend this sale. Take the elevator to second floor.

ELLIS, RUDY & PHILLIPS

219 BROADWAY 221

Everything in Its Season IS THE RECORD WE MAKE.

OUR stock of staple and fancy groceries is complete and up-to-date. Splendid line of canned goods. Our meat market is unexcelled, having everything in the line of fresh and salt meats.

Telephone 118. Cor. 9th and Trimble.

P. F. LALLY.

OBERT'S BEER

Is rapidly becoming the favorite with the people of this city. It leads all others, for the reason that it is

ABSOLUTELY PURE

HANDLED IN BOTTLES AND BY THE KEG BY

PADUCAH BOTTLING CO.

J. J. Bergdoll, Proprietor. Tenth and Madison streets. Telephone 101. Soda Pop, Seltzer Water and all kinds of Temperance Drinks. Orders filled until 11 p.m.

ESTABLISHED 1864.

Miss Mary B. E. Greif & Co GENERAL INSURANCE AGENTS.

Telephone 174.

PADUCAH, KY

DON'T CUSS THE PLUMBER

He may be entirely innocent. Maybe his work was good but has been mistreated. Whatever the cause of the break or leak, or bad behavior of pipes, don't waste time about it, but have it fixed up. We are ready to make repairs promptly and economically. We are ready to put a job of new plumbing into your house that will give you more satisfaction and less annoyance than you ever experienced before.

ED D. HANNAN

132 South Fourth Street-Telephone 201

HIGH-GRADE BICYCLES AND BICYCLE SUNDRIES.

Agent for the highest grades of Bicycles made. We are prepared to offer 1898 Stearns for $25.00. Don't fail to see our $45.00 Overlands and Rugbys—best on the market, prettiest wheel made. Don't fail to see our line of wheels before buying. We are the only exclusive bicycle house in the city. Complete repair shop. Free riding school to those buying wheels from us. Don't fail to call—remember the place.

Paducah Cycle Works,

126 and 128 North Fifth street, near Palmer House.

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

Published every afternoon, except Sunday, by

THE SUN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

INCORPORATED
P. M. FISHER, PRESIDENT AND MANAGER
R. W. CLEMENTS, VICE-PRESIDENT
J. E. DORRAN, SECRETARY
W. F. PAXTON, TREASURER

Office, Standard block, 115 North Fourth street.

Daily, per annum.....$ 4.50
Daily, Six months..... 2.25
Daily, One month..... 40
Daily, per week..... 10 cents
Weekly, per annum in advance..... 1.00
Specimen copies free

FRIDAY, FEB. 4, 1898

The average Daily Circulation of the Sun for the year 1897 was 1589 copies, as shown by the daily records of the office and proved by the sworn affidavits of four responsible men.

The Sun claims the largest circulation of any daily paper in Paducah. From the day of its first issue it has made its circulation public and asks its advertisers to make a complete investigation of its circulation books at any time. No other paper in Paducah will state its circulation.

If the Legislature will pass the bill now before it imposing a heavy fine on anyone making, selling or smoking cigarettes, we will admit that that body is not altogether an unmitigated evil.

This present legislature has shown a disposition and in fact an eagerness to "reform" everything in the state of Kentucky outside of Louisville; but Louisville is in the hands of "the gang" and of course reform is unnecessary.

SOME of our aspiring Democratic leaders at Frankfort who are shaping legislation and making records at the same time should bear in mind that sometimes a politician's record takes him out of the "available" class. It is possible to have too much of a good thing.

SENATOR BRONSTON, one of the scheme incubators at Frankfort, has introduced a bill creating county boards of education. One member of the board to be elected from each magisterial district in November, 1898, and the board shall perform all the duties now conferred on county superintendents. When this Legislature shall have passed from labor to refreshments, the able-bodied Democrat in Kentucky who is not a member of some "commission" will be a fit subject for a dime museum.

THE Goebel election bill for the appointment of three commissioners of elections has been framed, as a Democratic paper says, to prevent the recurrence of "the rank Republican frauds that were undoubtedly perpetrated in the mountain counties in the election of 1896." Whether the bill will, if it becomes a law, prevent wholesale Democratic frauds, such as were perpetrated in Louisville at the last election, is we presume a matter of minor importance in the eyes of the political Pharisees who are now very conspicuously on deck at Frankfort.

The acts of the present Legislature are being passed under protest,—by the people. The McChord railroad bill is opposed by the railroad people; the Orr tobacco bill has aroused the protests of the tobacco growers; the Bronston prison commission bill is bitterly opposed by the conservative Democrats themselves; the China school book bill has incurred the opposition of educators and school boards all over the state, and when election day comes the people will register a protest against the active principle at the bottom of all this peculiar legislation.—Bryanism.

MRS. FRANKLIN'S ACROSTIC

On Miss Bradley's Suggestion as to the Christening of the Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—(Special to Louisville Dispatch.)—Mrs. Agnes L. Franklin, wife of ex-circuit clerk Walter Franklin, and mother of the well known and popular commonwealth's attorney, R. B. Franklin, has written the following acrostic on Miss Christine Bradley, who will christen the battleship Kentucky. Gov. Bradley is very proud of it.

Clearer dawns the nearing future.
"Hark! The herald angels sing!"
Rise, ye daughters of Kentucky—
In your midst a lovely maiden
Spurns a custom of the nation,
Tells the world Kentucky's honor
In her hands—so kindly given—Not with death draught shall be symbol'd—E'en though hisses from great heroes Blend with censure from some statesmen.
Robed with right—invincible—
A fair girl stands beside the sea,
Dips with dainty hand pure water,
Laves the "Battleship Kentucky," Eternal Power! Our Brave One, give
Years of blessings long to live.
What the announcement that

Miss Christine Bradley will christen the battleship Kentucky with pure water means to the writer is fully expressed by the acrostic.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

A Newsy Letter From the National Capital.—The Great Issue.

The Kentucky Delegation One That the State Has Every Reason to Be Proud of.

Washington, Feb. 4.—(Staff correspondence of the Sun.)—The thermometer being down to about ten degrees above zero, and the streets covered with sleet and the air full of snow, makes indoors the more pleasant and gives me an opportunity to write a short letter.

Any one who has spent any time at all in Washington realizes fully that it is in a political atmosphere. In fact it is all politics, and a man who cannot talk politics, or who has not a theory as to how certain contests are going to terminate is really apparently out of place here. This city is surely political headquarters for the United States.

The political question uppermost in the minds of all here is that pertaining to the currency. The Free Silverites are making the most noise and never fail to do a good deal of talking, but the Sound Money men are doing some thinking themselves, and it is brain work and not talk merely that counts in the long run. There is no question but that the issue in 1900 will be silver, and the battle will be a hard one—harder even than in 1896. Sound Money however will win and Populism will be buried forever.

The Kentucky legislature has managed to get itself talked about a great deal, and has been the subject of much ridicule on account of the resolution that it passed asking Senator Lindsay to resign. It is making a farce of legislation, but it is probably doing the best it can. It might be a good idea for the people of Kentucky to abolish their legislature for a term of years, but then the people would miss lots of excitement. The friends of Senator Lindsay here are legion and will stick closer to him now than ever. He is certainly an honor to old Kentucky and one of the most capable men of the Senate.

We had the pleasure of meeting Senator and Mrs. Deboe and their little daughter last evening. Mrs. Deboe is a most amiable and charming lady, perfectly at home in Washington, always glad to meet Kentuckians, and fills the enviable position in society that she occupies here with grace and dignity.

Congressman Wheeler has made many friends here within the short time that he has been here. He is well liked, and his speech in the House on the financial question was the crowning event in his first term in Congress. The people of the First District have every reason to be proud of Charley Wheeler. He is capable and has impressed that fact upon his colleagues, and he endeavors as far as possible, to be not merely a perfunctory member of Congress, but to voice the sentiments of his constituents and to be an actual representative of his people. At the present time Mrs. Wheeler is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Kentucky's representation in Congress is above the average, although the larger part of the delegation is Democratic. All acknowledge that Congressmen Colton, Davidson and Pugh are men of particular merit and ability, and all being young men, will be heard from in the future. Congressman Evans is considered one of the ablest members of the House. Kentucky would do herself proud to select her next governor from among these men. Who knows but what some day she will do so!

While Thos. B. Reed is the Czar of the House and controls with an iron hand when necessary, it is nevertheless a fact that it takes a "big man" to make a successful speaker. As a parliamentary speaker Reed has no equal, both in knowledge of parliamentary law and in executive ability. The conduct of the House at times lacks that dignity that one would expect in so august a body as the House of Representatives, a fact that strikes new visitors with astonishment, and it is evident that a determined speaker is a necessity for the dispatch of business.

Senator Hanna is the most popular Senator in Washington. He is always approachable, ever ready to aid a friend and positive when the occasion demands. His popularity will increase for those who know him best are those who appreciate him the most highly and in fact his best friends.

Col. O. O. Stealy, of the Courier-Journal Bureau is one of the best and most popular newspaper men in Washington. He has been remarkably correct in his forecasts and his opinions are eagerly sought for. His son, Waterson Stealy is one of the best hustlers after news items in the city.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. It is now, however, pronounced a local disease, and is cured by local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, producing a curable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Remedy, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O., sold by Druggists, etc.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.
"A Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away." To quit tobacco easily and forever, be made of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Tobacco, the wonder worker, that makes weak men strong. All Druggists, etc. Write for free literature. Booklets and sample free. Address: Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

TAXABLE PROPERTY

In McCracken County, As Shown By Supervisors' Report.

The report of the county supervisors has been compiled, and is ready to be submitted. The total value of property listed by Assessor Byrd for the ensuing year in McCracken county is $7,104,875. The report shows:

Land owned by white people in the county, 148,483 acres, valued at $1,820,950; owned by colored people, 2,560 acres, valued at $26,485.

Town lots owned by whites, 3,919, valued, $4,312,210; owned by colored persons, 377, value, $134,760.

Bonds, mortgages, notes and cash, $314,195.

Personal property, $1,086,560.

Property exempted from taxation, $103,020.

Falls, white, 3,709; colored, 825; total, 4,534.

Total taxable property owned by white people, $7,030,895; colored, $163,980.

HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

To be beautiful you must have pure blood and good health. To do so, purify the blood and build up your health with the best Tonic and Blood Purifier of the age, Botanic Blood Balm, ("B. B. B.") It is the old standard and reliable remedy. It never fails to cure all manner of Blood and Skin disease, where eminent physicians, and all other known remedies have failed. Send stamps for book of particulars, to the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Price $1.00 per large bottle.

POSITIVE PROOF.

A lady friend of mine has for several years been troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck, for which she used various cosmetics in order to remove them and beautify and improve her complexion, but these local applications were only temporary, and left her skin in worse condition.

I recommended an internal preparation—known as Botanic Blood Balm, ("B. B. B.") which I have been using and selling about two years; she used three bottles and all pimples have disappeared; her skin is soft and smooth and her general health much improved. She expresses herself much gratified, and can recommend it to all who are thus affected. Mrs. S. M. Watson, Iron Mountain, Texas.

For sale by Druggists.

PECULIAR FEATURE OF CITY LIFE

Why is it that dwellers in flats don't know their neighbors? Any one who is well versed in the theory that women cannot get along without chattering or gossiping or occupying each other's households for a large fraction of the 24 hours should direct his or her observation to the modern apartment buildings. It is one of the most remarkable things of our latter day nineteenth century urban life—the custom of people not knowing each other in flats. It is only necessary to consider all the reasons and inducements for women living in separate buildings, and taking them together, they may be regarded as very plausible. A few become trouble-makers at times, but, as a rule, the negro is inclined to be friendly with his neighbors and congenial to those whom he meets. They take earnestly to education, and are fond of reading. The children at 20 times a day can run to their own homes their testimony even on the identity of their neighbors would not be admitted by an anti-corruption jury.

It is truly remarkable and must appear so to all dwellers in flats, this lack of acquaintance. The reason of such buildings seems to preclude familiarity, and the fact that each tenant wraps himself up in is of that inexorable Arctic kind that is never broken. There is no etiquette of new resident calls, such as obtain with all who inhabit detached houses. There are no social meetings or conversations while inspecting the growth of the vines or sewing on the side porch. On the contrary, every tendency of a flat building is toward isolation. The hollow of a rock in the desert is not half so good a place for a family to conceal itself or its affairs from the world. Perhaps flats are too new an institution to have a settled status suited to those people who like a little of the old-fashioned country way of knowing people occasionally with the eye or the ear, or where one lives. It is certainly almost inexplicable how people can come and go out of their homes day after day where a false step would almost throw them into their neighbor's apartments without ever knowing or cultivating that neighbor to more than the extent of a most frigid bow. It is certainly one of the most marked features about apartment buildings—even the best of them. It might be objected that persons living in flats do this by reason of knowing less about each other than those sheltered by brick and stone put up in other shapes. But this can have no weight in places where the householders are all people of means and position in the community. Here the same distinguishing characteristic of flat life is seen. The woman on the first floor knows all about the woman on the second, her husband's business, what church she goes to and everything but the lady herself. There seems to be no reasonable cause for the existing state of things. It is an enigma, and but one of the thousand strange, curious and unaccountable things that go to make up the measure of life in a great city.—Chicago Times-Herald.

SAGE MATRIMONIAL ADVICE.

Marry young, the Younger the Better. Says the Marriage Sage. Words of wisdom on the subject of matrimony are spoken by Justice Ephraim Kelgwin, of Jefferson, Ind., on the borders of the Ohio river. Here is the dictum of the hoosier oracle, who has united over 5,000 couples and is still at the business:

"Marry young is my advice. If you cannot marry young, marry as young as you possibly can, and, above all, marry." The sage says he holds the world's record as a marriage man. He has married people young and old, for 30 years, and he believes that it is the greatest blessing that poor human nature can know. He is certain that very few of the couples whom he has married have been divorced, and this goes far toward making him an optimist.

"Nearly all the divorcements that come to me are pleasant little shams," the sage went on. "The young folks want to inject a little innocent romance into the marriage, and then, too, they wish to escape the expense and trouble of big weddings. Once in awhile there is a secret marriage, but these are very few. I am glad to say."

"When I say that people should marry young I do not mean that they should wed before the young man is of age. When people are young they can adjust themselves to each other more easily. Some people are born fools and remain so to the end of their lives. You could not make them happy with a sultan's harem and a carload of money. They don't want to be. Most marriages are compromises, anyway, a matter of give and take, and as a whole, it is better for a man and a woman to be married even if they do quarrel occasionally than it is to remain single. Even quarreling couples will gradually adjust themselves and get more happiness out of life than the most peaceful old maid or bachelor."—Chicago Chronicle.

Measuring Memory. Attempts have recently been made in France by Prof. Alfred Binet to "measure memory." One of the experiments consists in reading a series of figures to the subject, at a regular speed of duties. "What will you be fit for in after life if you cannot command your feelings?" I have heard said by a venerable marquise who looked as if she had stepped down from the frame of one of the pictures in her chateau. I may quote another instance, of a lady in a less high position, who took in a wretched beggar child on a cold wintry night, performing maternal offices as regards removing the consequences of his neglected condition which were so repulsive that her physical strength gave way and she was taken violently ill in consequence. On my praising her charity, she exclaimed almost indignantly: "What! when our Lord washed the feet of his disciples, you would have me shrink from doing what is necessary for a poor, wretched child, merely through a feeling of disgust?"

I said nothing, but could not help thinking how many would have left the care to others. It must be acknowledged, however, that by the side of acts of benevolent charity there is, saving exceptions, a great lack of that genial kindness which shows itself to equals in any trouble by many little friendly attentions in England and America—the "cup of cold water" of the Gospel—Anna L. Bicknell, in Century.

Klondike Currency Statistics.

What is the circulation of hard cash in this part of the country? asked a new arrival at a Klondike official.

"Well, sir, the latest statistics, compiled this morning, after breakfast, indicates two quarts of beans and eight crackers to each inhabitant."—Puck.

Consistent Grief.

"Do you think Julia will always keep on mourning for her husband?"

"Yes, she is going to marry a man named Black."—Chicago Record.

NEGROES IN CANADA.

The total colored population of Toronto is about 25,000, almost the same as the French and the Italians. The older generation of negroes are escaped slaves, who came here before the war, and have remained since. It will be remembered that negroes came to this country in large numbers during the days of slavery, but as they returned remained, however, and of these Toronto, Hamilton, and Chatham come in for a good share. There are possibly not more than 15 living here now of those who did not return, and, like their numbers, their days are getting few. The younger generation is mostly born in Canada. The greatest misfortune they have experienced was caused by almost total cessation of employment by city hotels of colored help, and since that time there have been many negroes whose employment has been more or less uncertain. Of such are employed, a goodly number are in the Pullman car service, possibly more are barbers, four are letter carriers, some are waiters and restaurant keepers, some day laborers, and among those in special lines of business are a photographer, an ice merchant and a coal merchant. A large number do odd jobs of one sort or another, and possibly one-third are without steady employment. The women among them do a good deal of work, and they seem to have better opportunities of employment than the men. Quite a number are engaged as house servants, others do washing and laundry work, and a few are engaged in dressmaking and sewing at home. They have not saved much money, though a few own a little property in the city. It is seldom that much crowding is found among them, and taking them together, they may be regarded as very respectable citizens. A few become trouble-makers at times, but, as a rule, the negro is inclined to be friendly with his neighbors and congenial to those whom he meets. They take earnestly to education, and are fond of reading. The children at 20 times a day can run to their own homes their testimony even on the identity of their neighbors would not be admitted by an anti-corruption jury.

It is truly remarkable and must appear so to all dwellers in flats, this lack of acquaintance. The reason of such buildings seems to preclude familiarity, and the fact that each tenant wraps himself up in is of that inexorable Arctic kind that is never broken. There is no etiquette of new resident calls, such as obtain with all who inhabit detached houses. There are no social meetings or conversations while inspecting the growth of the vines or sewing on the side porch. On the contrary, every tendency of a flat building is toward isolation. The hollow of a rock in the desert is not half so good a place for a family to conceal itself or its affairs from the world. Perhaps flats are too new an institution to have a settled status suited to those people who like a little of the old-fashioned country way of knowing people occasionally with the eye or the ear, or where one lives. It is certainly almost inexplicable how people can come and go out of their homes day after day where a false step would almost throw them into their neighbor's apartments without ever knowing or cultivating that neighbor to more than the extent of a most frigid bow. It is certainly one of the most marked features about apartment buildings—even the best of them. It might be objected that persons living in flats do this by reason of knowing less about each other than those sheltered by brick and stone put up in other shapes. But this can have no weight in places where the householders are all people of means and position in the community. Here the same distinguishing characteristic of flat life is seen. The woman on the first floor knows all about the woman on the second, her husband's business, what church she goes to and everything but the lady herself. There seems to be no reasonable cause for the existing state of things. It is an enigma, and but one of the thousand strange, curious and unaccountable things that go to make up the measure of life in a great city.—Chicago Times-Herald.

CHARITY IN FRANCE.

Ladies of the highest rank, who seem the most engrossed by frivolous pleasures, will perform heroic acts of charity in the most unexpected manner. The Infirmary for Cancerous Diseases, containing the most fearful and loathsome excrements of the human body, is regularly attended by ladies of rank, who have their fixed days of duty, when, each in turn, they dress the wounds with their own hands. Duchesse d'Uzes, one of the best-known leaders of fashion, whose splendid festivities fill the chronicles of the leading newspapers, is one of the most assiduous, showing an adroitness in the exercise of her charitable functions which induces her care to be particularly desired by the patients.

I know of great families who, when residing in their country houses, have regular days in the week when the daughters of the family dress wounds and sores among the surrounding peasantry. The mothers in such families repress energetically any morbid sensibility which might interfere with such that he might "look like a black horse among a lot of white ones."—Toronto Mail and Empire.

SAGE MATRIMONIAL ADVICE.

Marry young, the Younger the Better. Says the Marriage Sage. Words of wisdom on the subject of matrimony are spoken by Justice Ephraim Kelgwin, of Jefferson, Ind., on the borders of the Ohio river. Here is the dictum of the hoosier oracle, who has united over 5,000 couples and is still at the business:

"Marry young is my advice. If you cannot marry young, marry as young as you possibly can, and, above all, marry." The sage says he holds the world's record as a marriage man. He has married people young and old, for 30 years, and he believes that it is the greatest blessing that poor human nature can know. He is certain that very few of the couples whom he has married have been divorced, and this goes far toward making him an optimist.

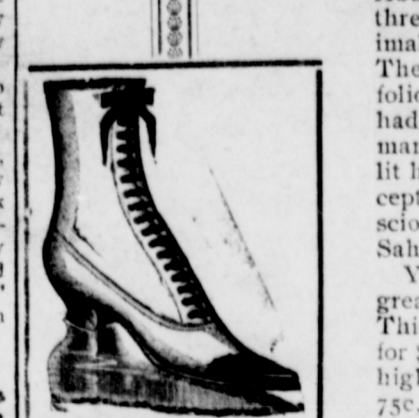

"Nearly all the divorcements that come to me are pleasant little shams," the sage went on. "The young folks want to inject a little innocent romance into the marriage, and then, too, they wish to escape the expense and trouble of big weddings. Once in awhile there is a secret marriage, but these are very few. I am glad to say."

"When I say that people should marry young I do not mean that they should wed before the young man is of age. When people are young they can adjust themselves to each other more easily. Some people are born fools and remain so to the end of their lives. You could not make them happy with a sultan's harem and a carload of money. They don't want to be. Most marriages are compromises, anyway, a matter of give and take, and as a whole, it is better for a man and a woman to be married even if they do quarrel occasionally than it is to remain single. Even quarreling couples will gradually adjust themselves and get more happiness out of life than the most peaceful old maid or bachelor."—Chicago Chronicle.

Measuring Memory. Attempts have recently been made in France by Prof. Alfred Binet to "measure memory." One of the experiments consists in reading a series of figures to the subject, at a regular speed of

Geo. Bernhard

Noubliez pas...

About the old story of the camel—how three philosophers heard about the animal and determined to investigate. The Englishman hunted through the folios of the British Museum, to find what had been said about the beast. The German went into his study, locked the door, lit his pipe and began to evolve a conception of the animal from his own consciousness; the Frenchman went down to Sahara to see.

YOU'VE heard a good deal about the great clearing-out sale going on here. This week we're selling ladies' shoes for $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00, worth as high as $6.00. Misses' and Children's at 75c, worth up to $3.00. The styles are not the latest, and we haven't all sizes of each lot, but why not do as Frenchman—See for yourself? You'll learn more regarding this great sale in five minutes at the store than we could tell you on a whole page of this paper.

Rose & Paxton.

Give you All Kinds of

FIRE LIFE and TORNADO Insurance

Over Citizen's Saving Bank.

A. S. DABNEY, ST. JAMES HOTEL

DENTIST.

406 BROADWAY.

WOOD WOOD

Do you want the best. It can be found at Tenth and Trimble. Dr and green hickory blocks for heating stoves. Try one order.

North End Wood Yard.

Don't Sacrifice

Future comfort for present seeming economy, but buy the sewing machine with an established reputation, that guarantees you long and satisfactory service.

The White

ITS PINCH TENSION

TENSION INDICATOR.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD

Table with 2 columns: Station, Time. Rows include Louisville and Memphis Division, St. Louis Division, and various stations like Louisville, St. Louis, and Memphis.

REMOVED!

STEAM LAUNDRY
To No. 120 North Fourth St.
New Machinery
Good Work
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
J. W. YOUNG & SON,
TELEPHONE 200.
G. R. DAVIS, AGENT FOR Front Rank and Triumph Furnaces.
Call on him and get estimates for heating your residence.
Tin, Slate and Iron Roofer.
129 S. Third St.

DR. D. A. AMOSS

Homeopathic
Physician
Office, 201 Broadway. At Office
Telephone 123. 9:00 to 11:00 a.m.
Residence, 291. 7:00 to 8:00 p.m.

W. R. CLEMENT, M. D. Ph. G.

Office, 201 Broadway. At Office
Telephone 123. 9:00 to 11:00 a.m.
Residence, 291. 7:00 to 8:00 p.m.

THOS. E. MOSS

Attorney-at-Law
116 South Fourth Street.

Matil-Effinger & Co

Undertakers and embalmers.
Store Telephone 134. Residence Telephone 150. 130 S. Third

HENRY BURNETT

Attorney-at-Law
Will practice in all the courts.
118 South Fourth St., PADUCAH, KY

C. A. ISBELL, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon.
Office 502 1-2 S. Seventh St.
Residence 723 S. Sixth.
Office Hours 7:30 to 9 a. m., 1:30 to 3
p. m., 6 to 8 p. m.

DR. W. C. EUBANKS,

HOMOEOPATHIST,
Office—306 Broadway. Telephone 120.
Residence, 160 Jefferson St., Telephone
Office Hours 9:00 a. m. to 7 p. m.

DR. A. M. COVINGTON,

OF METROPOLIS, ILL.
Tenders his professional services to all suffering from diseases of the EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT with wonderful skill. Special guarantee to those who undertake.

HARRY F. WILLIAMSON, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon
Office Hours:
7 to 9 a. m., 1 to 3 p. m.
Office, No. 419 1/2 Broadway.

Brinton B. Davis,

ARCHITECT.
Office Am.-German Nat. Bank

WRITTEN AT RANDOM

Miss Beatrice Cunningham, a promising and popular young writer of Golden Pond, Trigg county, is in the city, a guest of friends at 1716 Broad street. Miss Cunningham has written several entertaining stories, among which is her latest production, "Jacky, Jacky, Jacky," for which she is now canvassing. Miss Cunningham says she has adopted a sensational subjects and style, because there seems to be a greater demand for that class of literature, and a greater profit in producing it.

City Clerk Billy Patterson played a very disagreeable joke on a colored youth the other day. The lockup windows are enclosed with tall fences to prevent friends of prisoners from constantly annoying them by haunting the bars to talk to them. Late in the afternoon of the 21st, a colored youth came to the lockup and looked over the fence and got inside, where they can talk at leisure with whomsoever they please, or even carry their weapons or other things prohibited by the prison keeper.

The other morning Clerk Patterson locked down from his office window in the second story and saw a colored boy stealthily creeping up towards one of the enclosures. He concluded to watch him. The boy glanced over and anon furtively about in every direction, and then hastily scrambled to the top of the fence and looked around again. He looked in every direction but one—upwards—and consequently did not see the interested face of the municipal minion above. When he was just ready to swing over and drop onto forbidden ground, the clerk turned a bucket of cold water he had in his office upside down, and the force of gravitation carried the scintillating stream straight down into the woolly head, and dropping over the outside, disappeared from view, and in a manner not very different from that of a watermelon, he has not attempted to interview any of his friends in the lockup since.

City Assessor J. V. Grief, in a conversation with a reporter yesterday, made a good suggestion which might be considered with profit by a great many citizens. "I find that a great many people," he declared, "are intent on giving in their valuation too low. I go to men every day and ask them what they value their property at, and they all give such an amount. Many times I know it is worth more, but I have to place their valuation on the list, and not my own. Now the people should remember that such tactics will avail them nothing in the long run. It will only pile up trouble for the supervisors. The proper valuation will be placed on the property by the supervisors, if not the owners, and whenever a man purposely gives in his assessment too low, it occasions many changes in the assessor's books, which are very unjust under the circumstances."

Paducah seems to be infested with overcoat, hat and umbrella thieves—scoundrels who enter a man's house in the early evening or in broad daylight and carry from the halls all the apparel in sight. There have been countless instances of this class of larceny in Paducah lately, the majority of which have never been reported to the police, because what good would it do? Men are met almost every day who mourn the loss of a good overcoat, stolen from the rack by some sneak thief.

Walter Hopkins, Jr., of Little Rock, Ark., is the youngest commercial man on the road says the Mayfield Monitor. He was thirteen years old the 25th of November, and travels for the shoe house of C. B. McVey & Co., of the above city. Walter has been on the road four months, and a few days ago sold $600 worth of goods at Fulton. He travels alone, and his territory is Arkansas, West Tennessee and West Kentucky. This young gentleman was attending school at DeWitt Bluff, Ark., but quit school to travel. He is a bright, brown-haired, grey-eyed, intelligent boy, and is well pleased with his business.

Mr. H. J. Foppe, formerly manager of Ramona Park, had a good time reviving memories of former stage conquests with Mr. Clay Clement, who was here Wednesday night in the "New Dominion." He and Mr. Foppe played together ten or a dozen years ago. The were at that time in the American Dramatic company, a strong organization backed by New York and Cincinnati capitalists. They played "Themistocles," the Greek tragedy, principally, but Mr. Clement remembered one play in the repertoire, a Kentucky story, that proved a failure because it had too many negroes in it. This was because race prejudices were stronger then than now. Mr. Clement and his erstwhile collaborator, Mr. Foppe, had a most enjoyable time recounting their reminiscences in the earlier days, before Mr. Clement wrote his play, the "New Dominion," and achieved fame as an actor in the delightful role of "Baron Hausenstaufen."

Ballard's "Little Cuba," A clear Havana cigar, 5 cent straight. Ochsenschlaeger & Walker, exclusive agents. 373

Dr. Edwards, Ear, Eye, Nose and Throat Specialist, Paducah, Ky.

Everbody says so. Casaretti Candy Cane, the most wonderful medicinal discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, gently and positively cures catarrhs, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispels colds, biliousness, fever, habitual constipation, and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. Candy, 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

HE HAD EXPERIENCE.

Turning the Cold Light of Life on the Region of Romance. It was after the place was supposed to be closed to everybody except the janitor that the portly man of business found the office boy sitting in a retired nook.

"What are you doing here?" inquired the business man.

"Reading," replied the lad.

"Some novel?"

"Yes, sir, I suppose it is what you would call a novel; but I don't believe it's the kind you mean."

"What kind of a story is it?" inquired the employer, whose long eyes twinkled in kindness as the worried clerk disappeared from his face.

"It's about a boy whose parents were poor, and who was forced to earn his living. So he got a situation as an office boy."

"And in the course of time, by his courage and honesty, he arose until he became one of the partners in the firm?"

"I suppose so. I haven't got that far yet."

"And I suppose you are hoping you'll get along as well as the boy in the book?"

"Yes," was the answer with a slight "I'd like it first-rate."

"As far as you've got in the book, that boy hasn't had to worry about whether the landlord is going to raise the rent on his property so as to eat up the profits of his work."

"No, I don't believe there is anything like that in the story."

"He hasn't had any reason to bother about what congress may do to raw material, has he?"

"Not a shipping clerk yet."

"Then, of course, he doesn't lie awake nights wondering whether somebody whom he has accommodated in a business way is going to swamp him by allowing his notes to go to protest?"

"I haven't seen anything like that."

"Well, if you want to get a clear idea of all that probably happened, you mustn't omit these details and think them over attentively. Don't neglect to learn as many opportunities as you can, nor to climb every one as it comes along. Don't shirk any responsibilities when they are put on you, but do them, and you'll get on all right."

"In the future that you can't enjoy being an office boy while you have the chance."—Philadelphia Times.

DON'T COVER FURNITURE.

It Means That the Articles Are Either Too Good or Not Good Enough.

Containing furniture is quite an art, but there are two sides to the art, as well as to the furniture, and it is well to look at both. In some places of public resort in the city, notably one of our finest theaters, the chairs and furniture in the boxes are covered with oil-cloth.

In the home it is even worse. There is always a suggestion of unsanitary conditions in the brown stool and chair coverings so often encountered in disreputable parlors. The ghostlike draperies remind one of funeral occasions, and the summer odors of the family when the place wears bloomers and the chairs are all muffled to the ears to protect them from dust and atmosphere while their owners are absent.

It is not considered healthy to have much upholstery in the house, and the laws demanding light, airy furniture, which will not offer accommodation to moths and microbes. Sofas and chairs that can be easily handled and hangings that do not exclude air and light have replaced the curtain-covered bed and heavy draperies of our ancestors. Easy chairs muffled in wraps are not inviting, and should be sent with other antiques to the furniture hospital, there to be remodeled and renovated. It is an exploded idea of the past that it takes two men to move a chair. The introduction of flats has done much to simplify our involved methods of living; nervous prostration is less frequent since the principles of the new woman. To spread her bed on the floor, to lean her back against a hot, stuffy chair is one way to invite a host of troubles.

Chippendale chairs are models of what delicate proportions united with strength may produce in the hands of an artist. If there is a talent for embroidery in the family it can be made available, but such useful articles as chairs should be adorned only in the making and covered not at all.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

How to Press Embroidered Property. In all cases of embroidery on linen the work should be carefully pressed when finished, and it is important for every embroiderer to know how this may be done in the simplest and safest manner. . . . The proper way to press the finished work is to lay the embroidery face down on a clean cloth spread over an ironing-board or two thin, dampened cloth on the back of the article to be pressed, and then use a hot iron deftly on the wet surface until it is perfectly dry. A steaming process is thus engendered, whereby the embroidered linen is rendered smooth and the effectiveness of the work much enhanced.—Woman's Home Companion.

Baked Omelet. Makes a good simple pudding and is useful when dinner does not allow of frying. Beat two eggs lightly and stir in two teaspoonsful of flour and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Beat a teaspoonful of milk and in it put a teaspoonful of butter. Pour the milk on to the eggs, stir quickly, and pour into a hot, buttered dish. Set in a quick oven and bake for 15 minutes.—Boston Globe.

Musical Criticism. The little daughter of a certain musician at Erie, whose father is more than local, was overheard the other day, entertaining a visitor while her mother was out of the room.

"And do you like music, too?" asked the visitor, politely.

"Oh, yes, indeed," replied the child, with as near an approach to her father's manner as she could manage, "I'm specially fond of opera."

"What opera do you like?" asked the visitor. The child hesitated. Then she recovered her grown-up air.

"Oh," she said, carelessly, "my favorites are 'Lohengrin' and 'The Flying Dutchman'."—Washington Post.

COLORED DEPARTMENT.

All communications and matters of news pertaining to this column should be addressed to C. W. Merriweather, 221 South Seventh street.

CHURCHES.

Husband Street Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. C. W. Stoner, pastor.

Washington Street Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. E. S. Burke, pastor.

St. James A. M. E. church, 10th & Trimbles streets Sunday school at 2 p. m. Preaching at 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

Trimbles Street Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

St. Paul Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. V. Baker, pastor.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

The original of Hall Calne's hero in "The Christian" is said to be an English minister, Father Adler, the son of Lord Norton.

Dr. Edward Charles Munroe, the new president of the American Chemical society, is one of the highest authorities on explosives, and is the inventor of dynamite, which has become popularly known as navy smokeless powder.

Munkacsy, the great artist whose life has been dramatized, died recently of a cancer condition, but recently for the first time in some years he recognized his wife and spoke quite rationally of his future prospects and work.

Wilcox papers say that Rev. O. P. Christian, of Milwaukee, who married the eloping daughter of ex-Minister Robert T. Lincoln to W. W. Beckwith, is finding himself in great demand as a type of matrimonial knots, couples who even long distances to be "married by the man who married Abraham Lincoln's granddaughter."

A young college athlete at Richmond Hill, L. I., stated yesterday that through the aid of a railroad track with a train almost on them. The shock threw him to the ground, and he lay over the edge of the track and barely in time.

The dean and chapter of Canterbury, England, have just superintended Dr. William Henry Longhurst, the organist of Canterbury cathedral, at the full amount of his yearly salary, with permission to continue the use of his residence in the precincts. Dr. Longhurst has been associated with the cathedral for an uninterrupted period of 50 years, having entered as a chorister at the age of nine.

Temperate time days. The little days are about as free from the vice of drunkenness as any people in the world. In fact, it is the rarest thing in the world to see an inebriated subject of the islands. The native drink, "kai," is used about as tea is in this country, and is but little more intoxicating. Men, women and children sip it regularly, day in and day out, in small cups, such as we use for drinking after-dinner coffee. Whisky in Japan is usually of the sort that we in the United States designate "rotten," and sells for ten cents a drink in places frequented by sailors. People in good position, naval officers and foreigners, pay 25 to 50 cents per glass for a fair article, served in clubs and hotels. Natives, however, hold aloof from the places where whisky is dispensed, and do not believe there is a native saloon in the whole country. The best reason for the absence of the Japs in the matter of whisky is in the few wages prevalent over there. A workman doesn't get enough pay for a day's toil to balance the cost of a single drink of the article. As long as wages stay where they have been, for centuries there is no fear that rye and bourbon will ever become popular in the far east.—Washington Post.

The recollection of these early days was always present with Major Buttermoth, and they made a tender place in his heart for any man subjected to persecution of any kind for contending for what he thought was right. He frequently moralized on the tendency of the time, and constantly declared his belief that greed would have to be checked if the American people were to continue in their democratic methods. His mind was naturally that of a preacher and reformer. He was frequently called upon to fill the pulpit of a church, and while a professing christian he cared little for denominational differences. His addresses on these occasions frequently brought criticism because of the radical views he took on questions of social reform.

Ben Buttermoth was a remarkable man in more ways than one and his eulogy has been written a thousand times by a thousand able pens than mine. But in none will we have perfect glimpses of the real man seen than in the following from the Chicago Inter-Ocean:

Ben Buttermoth was always a peace-maker, but he also had that Quaker quality of securing peace by fighting for it. In his boyhood days he imbibed the abolition principles of his father, and stuck to them when they were not popular in Southern Ohio. Ben's father taught him to treat black children as he did those whose skins were white, and the attempt made by the virile Quaker, living on the border of a slave state, to carry out the parental injunction in this regard caused him many a trouble. The Quaker principles of the Buttermoth family were in favor of following the christian precept of turning the other cheek when a blow had been received. But there was something in the blood of young Ben that protested against a practice of this plan. Many a time he would be involved in a "scrap" with other youngsters.

On one occasion Ben, trudging home from school, met a little colored boy standing on one side of the muddy road, which he had not courage to cross. Ben responded, but he had hardly reached the middle of the road before he heard one of his companions call out "That's right, Ben, carry your little nigger sister over the mud."

Ben's blood boiled, and returning to dry land he began a punning match with his critic, who had no use for the little Quaker and abolitionist. Both boys went home with black eyes and other evidences of their battle. Ben had to own to his father that he had been fighting, and then he got into more trouble.

So intense was the feeling of the neighborhood against the Buttermoths as abolitionists that when, on one occasion, one of Ben's schoolmates met him with a pen knife in school the teacher dismissed the matter without disciplining the culprit because of the general feeling that it was just about what the young abolitionist had deserved. Years rolled around to find young Ben and the boy who had cut him fighting side by side in the Union army, and later as strong workers in the ranks of the republican party.

The recollection of these early days was always present with Major Buttermoth, and they made a tender place in his heart for any man subjected to persecution of any kind for contending for what he thought was right. He frequently moralized on the tendency of the time, and constantly declared his belief that greed would have to be checked if the American people were to continue in their democratic methods. His mind was naturally that of a preacher and reformer. He was frequently called upon to fill the pulpit of a church, and while a professing christian he cared little for denominational differences. His addresses on these occasions frequently brought criticism because of the radical views he took on questions of social reform.

Ben Buttermoth was a remarkable man in more ways than one and his eulogy has been written a thousand times by a thousand able pens than mine. But in none will we have perfect glimpses of the real man seen than in the following from the Chicago Inter-Ocean:

Ben Buttermoth was always a peace-maker, but he also had that Quaker quality of securing peace by fighting for it. In his boyhood days he imbibed the abolition principles of his father, and stuck to them when they were not popular in Southern Ohio. Ben's father taught him to treat black children as he did those whose skins were white, and the attempt made by the virile Quaker, living on the border of a slave state, to carry out the parental injunction in this regard caused him many a trouble. The Quaker principles of the Buttermoth family were in favor of following the christian precept of turning the other cheek when a blow had been received. But there was something in the blood of young Ben that protested against a practice of this plan. Many a time he would be involved in a "scrap" with other youngsters.

On one occasion Ben, trudging home from school, met a little colored boy standing on one side of the muddy road, which he had not courage to cross. Ben responded, but he had hardly reached the middle of the road before he heard one of his companions call out "That's right, Ben, carry your little nigger sister over the mud."

Ben's blood boiled, and returning to dry land he began a punning match with his critic, who had no use for the little Quaker and abolitionist. Both boys went home with black eyes and other evidences of their battle. Ben had to own to his father that he had been fighting, and then he got into more trouble.

So intense was the feeling of the neighborhood against the Buttermoths as abolitionists that when, on one occasion, one of Ben's schoolmates met him with a pen knife in school the teacher dismissed the matter without disciplining the culprit because of the general feeling that it was just about what the young abolitionist had deserved. Years rolled around to find young Ben and the boy who had cut him fighting side by side in the Union army, and later as strong workers in the ranks of the republican party.

The recollection of these early days was always present with Major Buttermoth, and they made a tender place in his heart for any man subjected to persecution of any kind for contending for what he thought was right. He frequently moralized on the tendency of the time, and constantly declared his belief that greed would have to be checked if the American people were to continue in their democratic methods. His mind was naturally that of a preacher and reformer. He was frequently called upon to fill the pulpit of a church, and while a professing christian he cared little for denominational differences. His addresses on these occasions frequently brought criticism because of the radical views he took on questions of social reform.

Ben Buttermoth was a remarkable man in more ways than one and his eulogy has been written a thousand times by a thousand able pens than mine. But in none will we have perfect glimpses of the real man seen than in the following from the Chicago Inter-Ocean:

Ben Buttermoth was always a peace-maker, but he also had that Quaker quality of securing peace by fighting for it. In his boyhood days he imbibed the abolition principles of his father, and stuck to them when they were not popular in Southern Ohio. Ben's father taught him to treat black children as he did those whose skins were white, and the attempt made by the virile Quaker, living on the border of a slave state, to carry out the parental injunction in this regard caused him many a trouble. The Quaker principles of the Buttermoth family were in favor of following the christian precept of turning the other cheek when a blow had been received. But there was something in the blood of young Ben that protested against a practice of this plan. Many a time he would be involved in a "scrap" with other youngsters.

On one occasion Ben, trudging home from school, met a little colored boy standing on one side of the muddy road, which he had not courage to cross. Ben responded, but he had hardly reached the middle of the road before he heard one of his companions call out "That's right, Ben, carry your little nigger sister over the mud."

Ben's blood boiled, and returning to dry land he began a punning match with his critic, who had no use for the little Quaker and abolitionist. Both boys went home with black eyes and other evidences of their battle. Ben had to own to his father that he had been fighting, and then he got into more trouble.

So intense was the feeling of the neighborhood against the Buttermoths as abolitionists that when, on one occasion, one of Ben's schoolmates met him with a pen knife in school the teacher dismissed the matter without disciplining the culprit because of the general feeling that it was just about what the young abolitionist had deserved. Years rolled around to find young Ben and the boy who had cut him fighting side by side in the Union army, and later as strong workers in the ranks of the republican party.

The recollection of these early days was always present with Major Buttermoth, and they made a tender place in his heart for any man subjected to persecution of any kind for contending for what he thought was right. He frequently moralized on the tendency of the time, and constantly declared his belief that greed would have to be checked if the American people were to continue in their democratic methods. His mind was naturally that of a preacher and reformer. He was frequently called upon to fill the pulpit of a church, and while a professing christian he cared little for denominational differences. His addresses on these occasions frequently brought criticism because of the radical views he took on questions of social reform.

Ben Buttermoth was a remarkable man in more ways than one and his eulogy has been written a thousand times by a thousand able pens than mine. But in none will we have perfect glimpses of the real man seen than in the following from the Chicago Inter-Ocean:

Ben Buttermoth was always a peace-maker, but he also had that Quaker quality of securing peace by fighting for it. In his boyhood days he imbibed the abolition principles of his father, and stuck to them when they were not popular in Southern Ohio. Ben's father taught him to treat black children as he did those whose skins were white, and the attempt made by the virile Quaker, living on the border of a slave state, to carry out the parental injunction in this regard caused him many a trouble. The Quaker principles of the Buttermoth family were in favor of following the christian precept of turning the other cheek when a blow had been received. But there was something in the blood of young Ben that protested against a practice of this plan. Many a time he would be involved in a "scrap" with other youngsters.

On one occasion Ben, trudging home from school, met a little colored boy standing on one side of the muddy road, which he had not courage to cross. Ben responded, but he had hardly reached the middle of the road before he heard one of his companions call out "That's right, Ben, carry your little nigger sister over the mud."

Ben's blood boiled, and returning to dry land he began a punning match with his critic, who had no use for the little Quaker and abolitionist. Both boys went home with black eyes and other evidences of their battle. Ben had to own to his father that he had been fighting, and then he got into more trouble.

So intense was the feeling of the neighborhood against the Buttermoths as abolitionists that when, on one occasion, one of Ben's schoolmates met him with a pen knife in school the teacher dismissed the matter without disciplining the culprit because of the general feeling that it was just about what the young abolitionist had deserved. Years rolled around to find young Ben and the boy who had cut him fighting side by side in the Union army, and later as strong workers in the ranks of the republican party.

SCIENTIFIC AND FIRST-CLASS

BLACKSMITHING
REPAIRING
HORSESHOEING
All work guaranteed.
A. W. GREIF,
Court Street bet. 2d and 3d.

CUT HALF IN TWO

Wall Paper, per roll ..... 30c
Fifty-cent Window Shades for ..... 30c

Hand-made shades in any size. Picture frames made to order. Fine paper hanging done in any part of the county by

NORTH FOURTH C. C. LEE NORTH FOURTH STREET

Look for the Big Sign when you get on Fourth street.

HENRY MAMMEN, Jr.
BOOK BINDER
A thoroughly equipped Book-making plant. You need send nothing out of town.

Patent Flat-Opening Books BROADWAY

O. B. STARKS
AGENT
Caligraph
AND Densmore
TYPEWRITERS
AND SUPPLIES

107 SOUTH SECOND

The Ardmore, Thirteenth street, between Pennsylvania avenue and F street Northwest,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

European, $1.00 and up
American, $1.50 to 2.5

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!

We have inaugurated a ten days' slaughter sale.
Nothing in our complete stock will be reserved.

All our heavy fleeced ladies' Oneita union suits, regular price 75c, sale price..... $ .39
All our heavy ribbed ladies' and children's woolen hose, regular price 25c, sale price..... $ .12
One lot ladies' fleeced vests, long sleeves..... $ .12
Any of the fine ladies' jackets in our store—former price cuts no figure—sale price..... 2.95

Millinery Department

Our complete stock of millinery will be closed out at just one-half of regular prices, in order to make room for our new spring goods.
We carry the most complete stock of hair goods in the city at prices that cannot fail to interest you.
Ask to see our hair switches, all shades, at 75c and $1.00.

215 BROADWAY... THE BAZAAR ...215 BRO DWAY
DON'T MISTAKE THE PLACE

J. S. GANSTER Notary Public

AND SOLICITOR OF PENSION CLAIMS
Prompt and thorough attention given to all cases.
Vouchers for quarterly payment of pensions carefully attended to.
Office, 714 South Third street.

MORTON'S OPERA HOUSE

FLITCHER THERELL, Manager.
5 - SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5
(MATINEE AND NIGHT)
THE FOREVER FAVORITES FIELDS' & HANSON'S
MINSTRELS

The '97 accepted high-grade wheel of merit! The show of the period! Refreshing minstrelsy, swept by ocean breezes of genuine wit!

38 HOT MEMBERS 38
Grand concert band and superb symphony orchestra.

SEE the new curtain raiser, "An Evening With the Elks."
SEE the timely hit, "The Dance of Dawn."
SEE the magnificent dancing picture, "In the Tenderloin."
SEE the imposing spectacle, "The Golden Shower."
SEE the dancing drill display, "The Grand Old Guard."
SEE Fields & Hanson's new act, "Best in the World."
DO NOT MISS the grand mid-day parade.
DO NOT MISS the exhilarating band concert at 7 p.m.
Matinee prices—Children 25c, adults 50c.
Night prices, 50c, 75c, 1.00 and 1.50.
Seats on sale Friday at Van Culin's.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8

OLIVER BYRON

SUPPORTED BY KATE BYRON
And their company of comedians, in the delightful comedy-drama.

UPS AND DOWNS OF LIFE!

Replete with...
Startling Situations,
Upstairs Fun.

Prices—50c, 75c, 1.00 and 1.50. Seats on sale Monday morning at Van Culin's.

Established 1855. Incorporated 1883.

Johnson

Foundry and Machine..

Company

Steam Engines, Boilers
House Fronts, Mill Machinery

And Tobacco Screws, Brass and Iron Fittings, Castings of all kinds.

PADUCAH, KY.

"Evening in Fairland," Program for the "Evening in Fairland" at the First Christian church tonight:

Gramophone selection.
Sciopticon views of "Little Red Riding Hood."

1. Leaving home.
2. Meeting the wolf.
3. Wolf at grandmother's cottage.
4. Wolf dressing in grandmother's clothes.

(Story told by Miss Angie Thomas.)
Song—Blanche Hills.
Sciopticon views of "Santa Claus."
(Story told by Miss Angie Thomas.)
Gramophone selection.

Sciopticon views of "Cinderella."
1. Helping her sisters dress for the ball.
2. Left alone.
3. Godmother appears.

4. At the ball.
5. Slipper lost.
6. Slipper fits Cinderella.
(Story told by Miss Angie Thomas.)
Song—Little Willie Willie.
Sciopticon views of "Rip Van Winkle."

1. Rip and the children.
2. His scolding wife.
3. Leaves home.
4. On the mountains.
5. Rip's return.
(Story told by Miss Angie Thomas.)
Gramophone selection.
Story of Joseph, Sciopticon illustrations, and miscellaneous views.
Admission, 10 cents.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Altman is dangerously ill.
Miss Mary B. E. Greif is on the sick list.
A. E. Eaton, of Double Springs, is at the Palmer.
Jas. G. McElmer, of Grand Rivers, is at the Palmer.
Mr. Theodore Courrier, of Ripley, Tenn., is in the city.
Miss Mary Boswell left today for Evansville on a visit.
Rev. Warner Moore, of Tennessee, is in the city.
Mr. C. W. Huntley, of Memphis, is in the city today.
Mr. A. C. Einstein left at noon for Chicago on business.
Mr. W. H. Parham has returned after a trip on the road.
Marshall A. Mott, of Union City, is at the New Richmond.
Rev. H. B. Johnston will preach at U. G. Mission tonight at 7:30.
Mr. J. H. Weir, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is at the New Richmond.
Col. Jas. P. Thompson has recovered sufficiently to be about again.
Mrs. F. M. Daugherty, of Louisville, is a guest of Miss Minnie Ratcliffe.
Master Edwin Wolff, whose arm was broken a few days ago, is able to be up.
Phil Hunt, advance agent for "Tennessee's Partner," is at the Palmer.

LOCAL MENTION.

Wants a Divorce.
Mrs. Cordelia Steele has instituted suit in the circuit court against her husband, J. O. Steele, for divorce, alleging inhuman treatment.

Incandescent lamp globes suitable for system for sale at McPherson's Drug store.

Walked 500 Miles.
Mrs. William Jackson, whose husband lives on a shanty boat, arrived yesterday from Girley, Miss., where she went several months ago to be treated for cancer, which was cured. She and her two children walked back, a distance of 500 miles.

Telephone No. 29 for a nice two horse load delivered promptly. Price, $1 cash. Ohio River Spoke and Rim Co., E. E. Bell.

Died of Consumption.
Miss Emma Weisner, of Sharpe, Marshall county, died last evening of consumption, aged 22. She leaves a mother and several brothers and a sister. The funeral took place this afternoon. Services by Rev. A. N. Sears, interment at Oakland cemetery.

Married at Metropolis.
Mr. Dutch Harrison, of Kaler, Ky., and Miss Rosa, a daughter of (crippled) John Smith, of the county, went to Metropolis to get married. They boarded the train at this place Tuesday night. This is the second adventure for each of them, Mr. Harrison being a widower and Miss Smith a grass widow.—Benton Tribune.

Just received a new line of embroideries and lace which will be sold at unusually low prices.
Palmer's Racket Store, 325 Broadway.

THE LATEST BARCAINS.
Axtell Soap, two bars for a nickel. The cheapest and best soap on the market.

Come and see what we can sell you for CASH.
ED JONES.
The Cash Grocer.

Prayer Service.
There will be prayer service at the Tenth street Christian church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All cordially invited to attend.

PITTSBURG COAL 8CTS. BUSHEL
Campbell-Mulvehill Coal Co. are selling Pittsburgh coal at eight cents a bushel. The cash must accompany every order.

Divinity of Christ.
This will be Evangelist Pearson's theme at the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath night. The service will be for men only. Mrs. Pearson will conduct a service for women only at the same hour in the First Cumberland Presbyterian church. This is said to be one of the best sermons that Mr. Pearson preaches who, Evangelist Moody says is the best Bible preacher in America. Mrs. Pearson also has wonderful powers in the exposition of scripture.

Don't fail to see the new line of lace and embroideries at Palmer's Racket Store, 325 Broadway.

Jansen Branch No. 33, C. K. & L. of A. O. U. W. hall, in Leech block, to elect a delegate to the Grand Council. A full attendance is desired.

The Ups and Downs of Life.
Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Byron will be here Tuesday evening in their celebrated play, "The Ups and Downs of Life." They have become popular with Paducah people in their other plays, "The Inside Track," and "The Plunger."

FIELD'S & HANSON'S
Big White Minstrels Tomorrow Afternoon and Night.

Fields & Hanson's big white minstrels will appear at Morton's tomorrow afternoon and night. The program is one succession of absolute novelties and timely hits, and includes the following:—The new first part, "An evening with the Elks," "The golden shower," a minstrel farce, terminating with "The dance of Dawson City's 400," a spectacular march "The grand old guard," the magnificent dancing diversion, "In the tenderloin," and several other positive innovations.

Popular I. C. Official Now Wears the Horns.
Supt. W. J. Harahan, of the Illinois Central, arrived yesterday afternoon from Louisville, and was last night initiated into the local order of Elks.

Mr. George H. Robertson, was also initiated, and became a member of Paducah Lodge No. 277. There are now eleven members of the lodge.

John Napper is a stalwart darkey who was charged with using insult-

FAMILY DROWNED.

Jas. Bowman, Wife and Two Children and Furniture.

Drowning Occured in Marion, Crittenden County, Ky.

Last Saturday a man by the name of James Bowman placed his wife and two children, together with a lot of household goods, including a stove, into a frail skiff and attempted to cross the Ohio river at the head of Hurricane island, near Marion, Crittenden county. The river was very rough, the waves rolling up several feet in height, and the little skiff was tossed about like a cockleshell. Finally, in order to light the skiff, Bowman threw the stove overboard, when the skiff suddenly dipped and threw the whole party into the river. A few faint struggles, a piercing scream of agony and fear, and the waters closed over them.

Definite information of the drowning was not secured until yesterday.

PRINCETON BURGLAR.

Pleads Guilty to the Charge of Housebreaking.

He Was Formerly in the Hopkinsville Insane Asylum.

Milton Cartwright, aged 16, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having robbed the stores of H. A. Bruce, confectioner, T. J. Johnson, grocer, and Henry Eldred & Co., dry goods, the night before at Princeton, Ky.

Some of the goods taken from Henry Eldred & Co.'s store were found on his person and upon examination before Judge Peary, Cartwright acknowledged having taken the articles from Eldred & Co.'s store and Johnson's, but denied having taken anything from Bruce's confectionery stand. He claims a negro was helping him.

Several months ago Cartwright attempted to commit suicide, but recovered and was adjudged insane and sent to the Hopkinsville asylum, where he remained a short time and was dismissed as well. He will probably be returned to the asylum.

DR. W. C. EUBANKS

Breaks His Right Arm By a Fall.

His Bicycle Threw Him Last Night at Fifth and Broad.

Dr. W. C. Eubanks, of Jefferson and Tenth, for the second time within a few weeks, met with a serious accident last night, the result of a treacherous bicycle.

About 10:30 o'clock, while turning at Fifth and Broadway, near the custom house, his wheel struck an elevation and his medical case was caught by the handle bars in such a manner as to precipitate him to the street. He arose and succeeded in getting home, where it was learned his right arm was broken. Dr. Frank Boyd was called and dressed the injury.

Dr. Eubanks only a short time ago received a fall from his bicycle, which badly wrenched his arm.

WITNESS DODGING.

And the Max Woods Case Had To Be Continued.

Several Fines Were Assessed in the Police Court Today.

The attempted robbery cases against Max Woods were called in the police court today and counted until Monday. This was because two of the principal witnesses, John A. Ron and Ed Lydon, were not present. Aaron is off on a steambot, but Judge Sanders stated this morning for this benefit of all concerned that Lydon, he understood, was hiding out. That he told a gentleman he didn't want to testify in the case because his evidence would be against Woods, and that he was going to dodge the police. He is supposed to be in Eddyville, and Judge Sanders will issue an attachment for him. The other witness, John Aaron, is expected to identify the pistol Woods claimed to have taken away from W. Lung, whom he attempted to rob, as one belonging to Woods, and which he saw in Woods' possession before the attempted robbery.

Back McGeehe, colored, who a short time ago after serving thirty days for a similar charge. The evidence showed that McGeehe bought five cents worth of coal and the watchman claims he took too much and had him arrested. Judge Sanders dismissed the case but remarked he expected to see McGeehe's familiar face before him again in a few days.

John Napper is a stalwart darkey who was charged with using insulting language toward Ann Webb, a worthy old colored woman. According to her story, she has been keeping Napper up for about a year. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs.

Anthony Kyle, of the South side, was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly at Ira Billigley's saloon on the South side. He was drunk and had to be put out of the saloon two or three times, and finally had his face mashed by Billigley. Billigley was discharged.

Henry Alexander, a colored boy, was fined $5 and costs for jumping on and off street cars.

CLAIM AGENT MILLER

Resigns His Position With the Illinois Central.

He is Succeeded By John C. Gates of Princeton.—Other R. R. Notes.

Claim Agent John G. Miller, of the Illinois Central, has resigned his position, and will be succeeded by Mr. John C. Gates, of Princeton, Ky. Attorney Miller's headquarters were at the Union depot, and he had served the road in the capacity of claim agent for several years, with about 666 miles of territory.

Mr. Miller resigned, it is said, because his duties were too arduous. His territory was too large. He will resume the practice of law at a downtown office.

Mr. R. H. McClelland, of the Georgia railroad, is in the city hustling business.

Roadmaster A. T. Sabin, of the I. C., was in the city yesterday.

Workmen were today engaged in repairing the river front track, which has been damaged by the river.

Engineer Joe Randall and Will Hudson, well known and popular in Paducah, have been transferred to Paducah, to run between Paducah and Memphis instead of Memphis and Cairo. Engineers Walter Sheppard and Ed Brown will take the runs between Memphis and Cairo.

I. C. stock is this month quoted to employees at $106.50 per share.

Fields & Hanson's big minstrels were carried from Fulton to Mayfield by the Illinois Central today.

$10,000 DAMAGES.

Is All Maggie Gaskins Wants From the Jones Installment Company.

Alleges She Was Humiliated By Arrest On Complaint of the Company's Agent.

Maggie Gaskins, of North Ninth street, filed suit late yesterday afternoon in the circuit court against her attorney, J. M. Gilbert, against J. C. Hamilton, and the Jones Installment Co., composed of J. L. and J. H. Jones, for $110 expended for attorney's fees and costs, and for damages in the sum of $10,000.

The suit grew out of a furniture deal. The woman purchased some furniture on the installment plan sometime since. Hamilton was a collector for the company, and had a disagreement with her about the furniture. He then went before Justice Winchester and took oath that she demolished furniture not belonging to her. She was tried and acquitted. But she was greatly humiliated by the publicity, arrest, and by being carried through the public street, under the espionage of an officers. She was compelled to pay $100 for an attorney's fee, and $10 for medical attention. She prays judgment for this amount, $110, and $10,000 damages in addition.

The row which grew out of the furniture deal has been exploited at some length in the local papers. The woman who sues above was fined in Justice Winchester's court for using insulting language, as was another woman implicated in the muss.

Hamilton and another collector of the company were fined twice each for abusing the women, and skipped. The Jones Installment company have branch houses in several surrounding cities, included are Cairo, Henderson and Evansville.

The long-distance telephone was put in operation at Dubuque, Io., Wednesday, and a large number of invited guests assembled at the Hotel Julian to hold conversations with parties in New York, Boston and elsewhere.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder 40 YEARS THE STANDARD

BONDS' DRUG STORE

THIRD AND COURT

Purple Azalea Soap

25 CENTS PER BOX

Former price.....75c per box

TELEPHONE 392

Goods delivered to any part of the city.

CITIZENS' SAVINGS BANK.

226 Broadway, Paducah, Ky.

Capital and Surplus, $120,000.00

Open from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. On Saturday nights from 7 to 8.

Interest Paid on Time Deposits

OFFICERS. President JAS. A. RUDY. Cashier W. F. PAXTON. Asst. Cashier R. RUDY.

DIRECTORS. JAS. A. RUDY, JAS. R. SMITH, F. M. FISHER, GEO. C. WALLACE, F. KAMLEITER, W. F. PAXTON, GEO. O. HART, E. FARLEY, R. RUDY.

THE THREE RIVERS.

Items of Interest Gathered From the River Front for the Sun Readers.

CAIRO, 42.8, falling.

Chattanooga, 5.5, falling.

Cincinnati, 23.1, falling.

Evansville, 39.1, falling.

Florence, 6.0, falling.

Johnsboro, 16.2, falling.

Louisville, 10.1, falling.

Memphis, 18.2, falling.

Nashville, 10.6, falling.

Pittsburg, 2.5, falling.

St. Louis, 3.9, falling.

Paducah, 41.0, falling.

S. A. FOWLER, Observer.

The Dick Fowler was away for Cairo at 8:30 a. m.

The Joe Fowler was the Evansville packet this morning. She left here at ten a. m., doing good business.

The local packets are again running on time and were in and out this morning each doing good freight business.

The Clyde arrived here out of the Tennessee river this morning blocked off with country stuff. She went over to where she discharged her freight for St. Louis and will return here this afternoon.

The towboats Peter Hontz and Wash Honsell are due here out of the Tennessee river with two big tows of cross ties.

The City of Clarksville is due here this afternoon and leaves on her return to Elizabethtown tomorrow at noon.

The river is dropping here at a lively rate. At 7 o'clock this morning the gauge showed 41 feet and at 2 o'clock this afternoon it was 40.1.

The Joe Fowler did not get away for Evansville until 3 o'clock this afternoon, owing to her receiving a big shipment of cattle here.

The towboat Dolphin No. 3 has been moved down to the iron furnace from the Leyhe fleet where she will have some repairing done. She is being put in shape to leave for St. Louis as soon as the Mississippi river is entirely clear of ice.

The little steamer Patti leaves tonight for the upper Cumberland river. She has been here for several weeks undergoing repairs, and also had a new battery of boilers put in. She is in charge of Capt. Sam Walker.

In speaking of the prospects for future floods on the Ohio river the Catlettsburg Democrat says: "Prospects of high water comes the question of future floods in the Ohio valley. That they may be expected with more frequency than in the past seems a logical conclusion. When it is considered that surface drainage is becoming more and more perfected throughout the Ohio valley, thus discharging millions of gallons of water into the river which would otherwise be absorbed by the earth or left in the sloughs and ponds in the bottoms, the danger of frequent floods is apparent. Again, the wholesale clearing up of the heavily timbered regions along the tributaries of the Ohio has a tendency to a dangerous increase in surface drainage into the streams. Under these conditions no existing, and which will be ap-

Water Filters

What is more essential to good health than pure water? Our Filters will make impure water as pure clear and sparkling as spring water. Every family should have one. Every Filter tested before leaving our store.

GUARANTEED AND FOR SALE BY

Scott Hardware Co. INCORPORATED 318-324 BROADWAY, PADUCAH, KY.

Wall Paper Window Shades.

IN THE LATEST PATTERNS. PROMPT ATTENTION GIVEN TO ALL ORDERS.

W. S. GREIF

No. 132 S. Third Street. Telephone No. 73

Dr. Albert Bernheim

Physician and Surgeon

FIFTH STREET... NEXT DOOR THE PALMER

HOURS { 7:00 - 9:00 a.m. 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Telephones { 364

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
CURE CONSTIPATION REGULATE THE LIVER
ALL DRUGGISTS

parent to a greater extent as time goes on, it is not improbable that an annual freshet of flood proportions will be anticipated and dreaded."

Those Warning Signals.
Editor Evening Sun: In your issue of the 3d your "Random" writer, in writing of the recent street car motorman's encounter with the men from the Leyhe fleet, says "the police have learned a great many things they did not know before. It is said that there is a warning signal to all evil-doers sounded by the tug whenever it approaches the fleet with officers on board. This was blown when the police went up aboard of her after the motorman's assailants, and the men straightaway concealed themselves. These river men never give each other away, and the captain for the preservation of his own interest among the men he employs, perhaps cannot afford to give any of them up to the police if theories are correct."

I don't think or charge that these statements were intentionally or designedly made to cast any special reflection upon either Capt. Henry Leyhe or his son, Capt. Harry, of the tug Echo. Yet they do indirectly make the very grave charge that the gentlemen aided these assailants in evading the officers. I went up on the next trip after the officers returned but knew nothing of the mission of the officers until night, and then it was claimed that the officers were in the cabin and talked with one of the men they were looking for. They were there at noon and if this be true why should Capt. Leyhe and his son be censured for hiding criminals. Also if this be true it does seem to me that it was time our police were lending something more; that is that their official jurisdiction ceases before entering another county to make arrests. I have no desire to comment further, and will only state that I have worked there for the last week and have never seen a more orderly set of men of that number (some 90 or 100 I suppose) at work. Captain Henry Leyhe superintends all the work. Captain Henry Leyhe runs the tug Echo and I find them to be affable, pleasant gentlemen who attend strictly to their own business.

CARPENTER.

ODD FELLOWS BANQUET.

Will Take Place At the Hall Tonight.

Grand Master Gaunt Made an Address Last Night.

The Odd Fellows held a most enthusiastic meeting last night, with delegates in attendance from several neighboring cities.

Grand Master Gaunt was present and made a splendid address. There was work in the initial degree.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Special Sale. Pure maple sugar, per lb., 10c. Heinz' Dill pickle, per gal., 30c. Choice dates, per lb., 7 1/2c. Choice dried figs, per lb., 7 1/2c. Choice N. O. molasses, per gal., 35c.

Fresh corn meal, per bu., 40c. Oranges, per doz., 10c. to 30c. Qt. bottles best catsup, 15c.

L. L. RANDOLPH. Phone 89. 123 S. Second st.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic; cures constipation forever. No. 132 S. Third St., Paducah, Ky.

Many former 10c Smokers

NOW SMOKE

Linwood 5c

Ask Your Dealer for It